

Palm Sunday Joint West Worcester Churches Service

A joint service for Palm Sunday was held at St John-in-Bedwardine following the initial part of the service held at St Clement's. The congregation then walked behind Milly the donkey to St John's for the main part of the service, which included the donkey being blessed at the start of it.

